and liberty of the Petitioners and the same would be sheer wastage of precious court time. Therefore, it was in the best interest of the society and parties to settle the matter.

4. That now the matter has been compromised, therefore, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the present FIR alive qua the Petitioners. The identity proof of the complainant and victim i.e. respondent no. 2 is annexed herewith as Annexure P-3 respectively.

5. That in the present case the FIR was registered against the Petitioners and Hardik . The investigation was conducted and challan was presented against the Petitioners and hardik. Hardik is juvenile and he is facing trail at juvenile court, therefore the present petition is filed qua petitioners only. The Respondent.2 complaint against me Due to Misunderstanding and Respondent No. 2has compromised the matter and respondent No. 2(Complainant and victim) has no objection if the above FIR in question is quashed qua the Petitioners.

6. That the complainant has been arrayed in the arena of parties as respondent, who had left with no complaint against the Petitioners and compromise has been effected between the parties and the Petitioners were not declared as proclaimed offender in the present case.

7. That between both the abovementioned parties, who have entered into compromise, no other case is going and pending adjudication in any other court regarding the incident involved in the present case..

8. That the Full Bench of this Hon'ble High Court, in the case of Kulwinder Singh and others v. State of Punjab and another 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 has held that the compromise, in a modern society, is the sine qua non of harmony and orderly behaviour. It is the soul of justice and if the power under Section 482 of the Criminal Procedure Code is used to enhance such a compromise which, in turn, enhances the social amity and reduces friction, then it truly is finest hour of justice. Disputes which have their genesis not only in matrimonial discord but others as well, such compromise deserves to be accepted. It is further held as under:-

MOHAN SINGH RAWAT

"The only inevitable conclusion from the above discussion is that there is no statutory bar under the Criminal Procedure Code which can affect the inherent power of this Court under Section 482. Further, the same cannot be limited to matrimonial cases alone and the Court has the wide power to quash the proceedings even in noncompoundable offences notwithstanding the bar under Section 320 of the Criminal Procedure Code in order to prevent the abuse of law and to secure the ends of justice."

In the case of Madan Mohan Abbot v. State of Punjab 2008 (4) S.C. Cases 582, the Apex Court emphasised and advised as under:-

"We need to emphasise that it is perhaps advisable that in disputes where the question involved is of a purely personal nature, the court should ordinarily accept the terms of the compromise even in criminal proceedings as keeping the matter alive with no possibility of a result in favour of the prosecution is a luxury which the courts, grossly overburdened as they are, cannot afford and that the time so saved can be utilized in deciding more effective and meaningful litigation. This is a common sense approach to the matter based on ground of realities and bereft of the technicalities of the law."

5.Taking into account that the compromise has been effected between the parties and the affidavit of respondent No.2 stating that he has no objection if the FIR is quashed, it is a fit case where there is no impediment in the way of the Court to exercise its inherent powers under Section 482 Criminal Procedure Code for quashing of FIR in the interest of justice."

9. That as per Information supplied to the counsel of the petitioners, petitioners is not involved in any other cases and the petitioner is not proclaimed offender in any other case.

10. That no such or similar Petition earlier has been filed by the Petitioners either in this Hon'ble Court or in the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, as per the information supplied to the present Counsel for the Petitioners.

It is therefore, respectfully prayed that the petition may kindly be allowed as prayed for and following prayers may kindly be allowed;-

i. For quashing of the FIR No. 472 Dated 26.11.2024 under Sections 115, 117(2), 126, 238(a), 3(5), 351(3) of BNS registered at Police Station Tehsil Camp Panipat, District Panipat, (Annexure P-1) on the basis of compromise/Affidavit dated 15.04.2025 (Annexure P-2) alongwith all consequential proceedings qua the Petitioners.

ii. During the pendency of the present petition, the proceedings in the above mentioned FIR may kindly be stayed qua the Petitioners.

iii. It is also prayed for exemption from filing the certified copies of Annexure P-1 to P-3, with a further prayed for placing on record the true typed /photocopy of the same.
